NOTE—Contn. sheet.

Submitted to His Highness.

Mr. V. Subramanya Iyer, Registrar of the Mysore University, attains the age of superannuation on the 15th April 1924, but has been given an extension of one year up to the 15th April 1925. On the 22nd September 1923, an application from Mr. Subramanya Iyer was received for six months combined leave from the 26th October 1923 with the Vice Chancellor's recommendation that as there was heavy work in the University office, Mr. Subramanya Iyer may be granted the leave he is entitled to at the time of his retirement. The Vice Chancellor subsequently wrote in December last that as he had to take about a month's leave from the middle of January 1924 (which however he did not take) it was not possible to grant leave to Mr. Subramanya Iyer for the present and recommended that he might be given the leave due after his superannuation without prejudice to his taking any short leave before that date. A further representation having been since received, the subject was considered in Council on the 28th February, when it was resolved that Mr. Subramanya Iyer may be given the privilege leave due to him on the expiry of his extension of service and that no furlough can be granted.

Under Art. 150 A of the Mysore Service Regulations, in exceptional cases when leave has been deferred in public interests, Government may in its discretion grant leave extending to not more than six months beyond the officer's birthday. In all recent cases in which leave has been given after superannuation, on the ground of leave having been deferred in public interests, the Government has only given privilege leave to which the officer is entitled and no furlough. The grant of any leave after an officer is 55 years old is entirely in the discretion of Government.
